

NII Holdings, Inc.
1875 Explorer Street
Suite 1000
Reston, VA 20190

tel 703 390 5100

www.nii.com

Position Title: OTA Platform Engineer
Global Grade: 12

Major Responsibilities:

- Improve and evolve the OTA platform architecture and operations
 - Solicit feedback via presentations and discussion forums with the engineering and product teams
 - Assist in successful completion of device update and SIM update campaigns by collaborating with internal and external contacts
 - Ensure timely certification of new devices, device maintenance releases and SIM cards for OTA compliance
 - Provide Tier 4 support to ensure smooth operation of the OTA service
 - Assist other functions such as product , IT and marketing by sharing OTA expertise
 - Provide timely and comprehensive status and progress updates on the assigned tasks to management
- Assist in the preparation of the OTA platform yearly budget

Minimum Qualifications:

- Experience in wireless device management technology OMA-DM and firmware update technologies such as FOTA
 - Experience with wireless technologies (GSM, CDMA, WCDMA) and understanding of voice and packet core network architecture
 - Experience with wireless communication protocols including WAP and SMS
 - Ability to generate test plans and provide regular updates on status of device testing
 - Willingness to travel to Latin America for 1-2 weeks every 6 months
 - Understanding of wireless device activation and provisioning call flows, including OSS/BSS, desired
 - Understanding of Nextel PTT desired
 - Ability to work independently and proactively with minimal supervision
 - Excellent communication skills (oral and written)
- Minimum of 4 yr technical degree (BS Engineering or computer Science) and 10+ years of telecom experience