

Position Title:
Global Grade:12

UGDB System Database Engineer

NII Holdings, Inc.
1875 Explorer Street
Suite 1000
Reston, VA 20190

tel 703 390 5100

www.nii.com

Major Responsibilities:

- The Database Engineer is responsible for supporting the Push-to-Talk user database including design, deployment and testing of the Push to Talk database and new schemas or features
 - Define and evolve solution architecture for service launch and beyond
 - Provide support to IT for any Qchat provisioning issues requiring Engineering support
 - Lead database architecture/design reviews; participate in PTT architecture and design reviews
 - Lead the database yearly budget submission and track yearly spend against budget
 - Support Supply Chain group with any database vendor selections, statements of work and contract negotiations
- Provide Tier 4 support for PTT database as well as long-term capacity planning to support customer growth

Minumum Requirements:

- 3+ years experience as database engineer or analyst
- Ability to translate business requirements into technical roadmaps
 - Knowledge of XDMS/XCAP, LDAP, SQL protocols
 - Prior experience with wireless PTT network engineering and deployment
 - 2+ years experience supporting mission critical database
 - Ability to work independently and proactively with minimal supervision
 - Excellent communication skills (oral and written)
- Minimum of 4 yr technical degree (BS Engineering or Computer Science) and 10+ years of telecom experience